Subject: Research

I have been looking into a Samuel Appleton that could easily fit into our line. One of the compelling reason is that he just "appeared" in Hardy Twp. Holmes Co. You know, dropped out of the sky.

Samuel was born about 1818 in PA. (Fits to be one of Thomas's sons by 1st. mar.) He was a painter. (Fits as - not a farmer) He died between the 1860 and 1870 censuses. (Fits - died young)

He married Catherine ca 1845 probably in OH. They had children Mary E. b. 1847; Joseph M. b. 1849; Rebecca b. 1854.

Mary E. married James McClure who was also a painter. James was born ca 1843 in OH. They had at least a son Joseph McClure b. 1868. Last known of them is 1870 in Millersburg (Hardy twp.) Holmes Co. OH.

Owella

Joseph M. b. 1849 was a photographer. He married Ellaw? (perhaps Ellen?) Courtney. Ellaw? was born about 1850 in OH & died bef. 1920. Their children were Theresa b. Jan 23, 1870; Kate (Catherine?) b. 1873; Maggie (Margaret?) b. 1975; William C. b. 1876.

Joseph died after the 1930 census. (This also fits as if the Appleton's didn't die young, they attained great ages.)

Theresa Appleton mar. Theodore Heinig who was also a photographer and was in business in Pasadena with Joseph M. Theodore was born 1859-60 in OH and died in 1934 in CA. Theresa died Mar 19, 1950 in Los Angeles.

Theresa and Theo had a dau. Oella b. 1903 in CA. Oella mar. Harry Calvin Williams. Oella & Harry had Eleanor, Marjorie, Harold and Virginia.

A Helen Carter has several queries online about Oella and Theo. However, it appears I know more than she does so I have not contacted her. (Snobbish?)

I think I have exhausted the resources on the internet but am making notes for our next FW trip. There isn't much on Holmes Co. on the net. It is a big Amish area so I suppose if they don't have electricity, they aren't too interested in the internet!

So if you see anything in your notes, or come across any help here, it will be appreciated.

Hope all is well with you both.

We received an e-mail from member Larry A. Smith of Clyde, Ohio. (He is the great grandson of Peter Smith, Jr. and Catharine Brown who md. 9 Feb 1854, in Richland Township, Holmes Co., OH.) In his e-mail he says:

Found at the Clyde, Ohio library: Howe's Historical Collections of Ohio – Vol. 1, Call #R977.1 HO – Pages 934 to 941 – Holmes County.

The Pennsylvania emigration to Ohio was the greatest from any State; and this particularly applies to Holmes and all of the central part, the great wheat belt, of the State. And we think Washington County, PA., more than from any other single County; anywhere, helped to populate Ohio. As late as 1846-47 about one-quarter of the members of the Ohio Legislature were natives of Pennsylvania, exceeding the members born in any other State, or all the New England States combined, or were born in Ohio itself. Pennsylvania strongly gave its impress upon the judicial history of Ohio.

On Tuesday, August 31, 1880, was held at "Ingles Sugar Grove" near Millersburg, what was termed the Pennsylvania Picnic. It consisted of all persons born in Pennsylvania then residents of the town and vicinity; these, with their families, attended to the number of about 200. The Counties strongest represented were Washington, Cumberland, Allegheny and Somerset; then Beaver, Lancaster and Lebanon. In all sixteen Counties were represented. The day was given up to social pleasure and enjoyment. The Normal School String Band supplied the music. At noon all partook of a sumptuous basket-dinner in "regular old fashioned Pennsylvania style". We annex a list of the Keystone State representatives, mostly head of families:

Elias Klopp and wife, Lucinda H. Robinson, Mary G. Barton, Mrs. Frances Long, Robert Long, John Brown, James Hebron, Mrs. E. A. Hebron, John Patterson, Robert Justice, Catherine Justice, R. K. Enos, Mrs. T. B. Cunningham, Mrs. H. M. Cunningham, Mrs. Caddie Shattuck, Fred Shattuck, Mrs. W. K. Duer, E. J. Duer, Aaron Uhler, Mrs. Mary Bowman, J. M. Bowman, Mrs. B. C. Shoup, Wm. C. Here is some info on Appleton, with a mention of Heining

J. M. APPLETON, [pages 250-251] of Nos. 20 and 22 East Third street, Dayton, Ohio, is recognized as one of the most skilled artists in the state, and merits classification among the representative photographer of the Union. Mr. Appleton is a native son of Ohio, with whose history that of his family has been linked from the early pioneer days, while his lineage also goes back in American annals to the Revolutionary epoch and thence to stanch English and Scotch origin. He was born at Millersburg, Holmes county, Ohio, on the 3d of September, 1848, being the son of Samuel and Catherine (Morris) Appleton. The original American ancestor of the Appleton family emigrated hither from England early in the seventeenth century, and records extant show that he bore the name of Samuel and that he located in the state of Massachusetts, in which and in others of the eastern states the family has become a numerous one, its representatives having been principally identified with business pursuits of commercial character. The parents of our subject became residents of Ohio in an early day, and their marriage was consummated at Millersburg, Holmes county. The maternal ancestry of Mr. Appleton traces back to pure Scotch extraction, the line of descent being clearly defined in its connection with the royalty of Scotland. The Morris family has been long and closely identified with the history of New England.

J. M. Appleton passed his boyhood days in the town where he was born, receiving his early education in the public and select schools of that place. At the age of fifteen years he became a clerk in a local drug store, and after acquiring quite a full knowledge of this business he severed his connection therewith and learned the painter's trade, in which he was engaged for some time. Prior to his majority he entered a photographic studio at Akron, Ohio, and there remained for a brief time, within which he had so thoroughly familiarized himself with the processes and details of the work that he returned to Millersburg and there opened a studio of his own, continuing the enterprise successfully until the year 1876. In the centennial year he closed out his business. in Millersburg and removed to Columbus, Ohio, becoming one of the leading photographers of the capital city and there successfully conducting a studio until 1880, when he came to Dayton, where he has ever since been located, conducting the leading studio of the city and doing all classes of photographic work, both in portraiture and commercial productions. He is a member of both the National and the Photographers' associations and has held the office of president of the national organization. A similar honor was tendered him by the state association, but he declined the position.

Mr. Appleton was the projector and prime factor in the establishment of the Photographic Salon of Ohio, whose object is the advancement of photographic art and the education of those concerned therein. The productions of Mr. Appleton's finely equipped studio have been exhibited, on various occasions, in competition with the work of the leading artists of the country, and the high artistic and technical merit of his work has gained him many medals at these exhibitions. He devotes his attention to high-grade work almost exclusively, and has been a persistent advocate of the professional wisdom of maintaining a high standard of art rather than of establishing cheapness of price at the sacrifice of fine and effective work. He is progressive in his art and in his business methods, keeping in close touch with every, advance made in the field of photography, which is both a science and an art. His studio is supplied with the most approved mechanical appliances and accessories, while in the chemical manipulations every portion of the work is entrusted to competent hands.

The marriage of Mr. Appleton was solemnized in the year 1869, at Millersburg, when he was united to Miss Oellaw E. Courtney, daughter of William J. Courtney. Her family in the paternal line is of English descent, her grandfather having emigrated from the British Isles to America. Mr. and Mrs.. Appleton are the parents of four children, as follows: Theresa, wife of Theodore Heinig, of Dayton; Katherine, wife of Harold C. Maltby, of this city; Margaret L., at home; and William Courtney, a graduate of the Dayton high-school, who is now preparing himself as a scientific and practical electrician at Rose Polytechnic school, Terre Haute, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Appleton are members of the Central church of Christ, where Mr. Appleton renders efficient service on its official board.

our hearths we again retired to our beds, and slumbered undisturbed, until awakened by the strong, lunged newsboy beneath our window crying:

"Here's your morning papers—all about the fire last night. Only five cents."

Investing the requisite sum in a Commercial we hastily open the damp and ink-perfumed paper, and the first words which met our vision were these, "Disastrous Steamboat Conflagration—Six Steamers in Flames at the Landing last Night, and Five Totally Destroyed."

Donning out-of-door wrappings, in company with others, we proceeded to the scene of disaster. Down the levee, which was covered with ice, formed by the water which escaped from the hose a few hours before, we made our way to the river, amid thousands, who had assembled to gaze upon the wreck before them. Black and ruined, in a mass before us, lay the hot and smoking hulls—all that remained of five steamers—which, with their destroyed cargo were one half day before valued at quarter of a million dollars.

Truly did we realize how easy it is for "riches to take unto themselves wings and fly away."

In connection I will mention the Fire Department of Cincinnati. The entire force numbers as nearly as I can tell, one hundred and fifty men, seventy-five horses, and eighteen steamers.

The officers and men are always prompt in action and ever ready to [illegible] danger calls, and by their constant watchfulness give to our citizens a sense of enjoyable security from fire.

The "fire alarm telegraph" is a great improvement over the old process of tower watchmen, and the entire cost of the "alarm" is saved many times over yearly, by the prompt manner that notice is sent throughout the city, of the exact location of fire.

In the central part of the city is a Tower in which a watchman is constantly stationed. From this Tower extend two hundred and forty two telegraph wires, connecting with a small signal box, attached to the outer wall of as many houses in different parts of the city. These boxes are numbered, and by turning a crank attached to the box, the number of that box is carried over its wire, to the central Tower, and the person stationed there, by electric arrangements immediately sounds the alarm of fire near that signal box on every bell of every engine house in the city. For example: To announce an alarm from signal box No. 24, the bells will be struck twice, and after a pause of five seconds, will be struck four times thus, 2—4. If from No. 124, thus, 1—2—4. This is repeated at intervals of twenty seconds until three alarms have been sounded.

When three alarms are given, but one third of the steamers are called to the fire. When six alarms sound, two thirds of the steamers are called, and when nine alarms, or three times three sound, it is known that a terrible fire is raging, and the full force of the Fire Department is called.

The number of signal boxes is two hundred and forty-two. The number of fire plugs for supplying the engines with water, four hundred and twenty-four. Public cisterns two hundred and forty-nine.

During the past year property to the Godey's Lady's Book.

The fashion plates and other illustrations are very numerous and very fine, and the literary contributions are more than ordinarily interesting. The receipts are valuable to housekeepers. Of course, the votaries of fashion can find all the information they want about matters pertaining to the toilet. It used to be that a thing was not well done unless done 'according to Gunter,' but now-a-days a lady is not considered well dressed unless she is dressed according to Godey.

MARRIED.

On the 14th inst., at the Lutheran Parsonage, Millersburg, by Rev. I. Culler, Mr. JOHN A. GARMIRE, and Miss SHASTA M. STIFFLER, all of this county.

DEATHS.

In Millersburg, March 14th, MARY MORRIS, aged 75 years and 8 days.

Mrs. Morris was an old resident of Holmes county, and for nearly forty years held her membership in the Disciple Church. Her end was peace, and she leaves the legacy of a good name to her numerous family and friends.

SEWING

MACHINE.

The Finest, Cheapest & Best,

And Most Perfect Machine Made in the World.

ALSO, A

SEWING MACHINE,

And one that will make

Button-Holes and Do Overseaming,

COMBINED IN ONE.

THE SEWING MACHINE,

Like all machines, when first made, and that did the work for which they were intended, was rude, uncouth and imperfect, but the inventive genius of man, stimulated by protection, has not only improved them, but the last, having the advantage of the defects and imperfections of the first, have devised and originated new ones, that are altogether better, more simplified, neater and cheaper, so that we can present to you a machine that, at a glance, you would pronounce perfect. At all events they will do work superior to hand work, either for neatness, durability and beauty. This we do in the American Sewing Machine,

Which will do all work that is done by any Sewing Machine, and besides, simple and plain, not hard to understand, easy to run, (either on account of their mechanical construction, or not being complicated, or both,) seldom or never out of order, and will last a lifetime.

The Splendid Mechanism

Of this machine, and the superior skill, workmanship and materials employed in its construction, are a guaranty of accuracy, strength and durability, and runs with such ease that it makes a woman laugh.

The shuttle, riding in its carrier, is subject to no wear, and the friction of a "race" is avoided. The tensions admit of such nice adjustment, and with such ease and certainty, that one of the great difficulties met with in ordinary machines is entirely avoided. The feed is adjustable, so that it will work with equal facility either light or heavy goods.

This being comparatively a new machine, persons would naturally be a little suspicious of buying a machine they knew but little about, but by referring to the following named persons who have these machines in use, you

Subject: Re: Maltby/Appleton Research

Helen,
Thank you for asking. I have Harry Clinton MALTBY (1870-1947) married to Katherine G. APPLETON.
I have not had the opportunity to research her family before. I was overjoyed to see these additional family members. This branch of the Maltby family is a distance branch but I am enjoying identifing as many members of the family I can.

sorry I am not familiar with this branch
Jay Courtney Maltby jcmaltby@attbi.com is a direct decendent through Joseph and son John.
He helped me with this branch.

Sent 11/23/03

Thank you again for asking,
Harry Maltby

PP. 250-251 CENTENNIAL PORTRAIT & BIOG. RECORD OF DAYTON & MONTGOMERY Co.

F. CONOVER

Dayton no citizen has won a surer place in the respect and confidence of the community than that achieved by Mr. Snyder. Upright and sincere in his business methods, and of a warm and genial nature, he has the faculty of making fast friends of a large circle of acquaintances.

J. M. APPLETON, of Nos. 20 and 22 East Third street, Dayton, Ohio, is recognized as one of the most skilled artists in the state, and merits classification among the representative photographers of the Union. Mr. Appleton is a native son of Ohio, with whose history that of his family has been linked from the early pioneer days, while his lineage also goes back in American annals to the Revolutionary epoch and thence to stanch English and Scotch origin. He was born at Millersburg, Holmes county, Ohio, on the 3d of September, 1848, being the son of Samuel and Catherine (Morris) Appleton. The original American ancestor of the Appleton family emigrated hither from England early in the seventeenth century, and records extant show that he bore the name of Samuel and that he located in the state of Massachusetts, in which and in others of the eastern states the family has become a numerous one, its representatives having been principally identified with business pursuits of commercial character. The parents of our subject became residents of Ohio in an early day, and their marriage was consummated at Millersburg, Holmes county. The maternal ancestry of Mr. Appleton traces back to pure Scotch extraction, the line of descent being clearly defined in its connection with the royalty of Scotland. The Morris family has been long and closely identified with the history of New England.

J. M. Appleton passed his boyhood days in the town where he was born, receiving his early education in the public and select schools of that place. At the age of fifteen years he became a clerk in a local drug store, and after acquiring quite a full knowledge of this business he severed his connection therewith and learned the painter's trade, in which he was engaged for some time. Prior to his majority he entered a photographic studio at Akron, Ohio, and there remained for a brief time, within which he had so thoroughly familiarized himself with the processes and details of the work that he returned to Millersburg and there opened a studio of his own, continuing the enterprise successfully until the year 1876. In the centennial year he closed out his business in Millersburg and removed to Columbus, Ohio, becoming one of the leading photographers of the capital city and there successfully conducting a studio until 1880, when he came to Dayton, where he has ever since been located, conducting the leading studio of the city and doing all classes of photographic work, both in portraiture and commercial productions. He is a member of both the National and the Photographers' associations and has held the office of president of the national organization. A similar honor was tendered him by the state association, but he declined the position.

Mr. Appleton was the projector and prime factor in the establishment of the Photographic Salon of Ohio, whose object is the advancement of photographic art and the education of those concerned therein. The productions of Mr. Appleton's finely equipped studio have been exhibited, on various occasions, in competition with the work of the leading artists of the country, and the high artistic and technical merit of his work has gained him many medals at these exhibitions. He devotes his attention to high-grade work almost exclusively, and has been a persistent advocate of the professional wisdom of maintaining a high standard of art rather than of establishing cheapness of price at the sacrifice of fine and effective work.
He is progressive in his art and in his busi methods, keeping in close touch with every vance made in the field of photography, wh is both a science and an art. His studi supplied with the most approved mechan appliances and accessories, while in the ch ical manipulations every portion of the w is entrusted to competent hands.

The marriage of Mr. Appleton was sol nized in the year 1869, at Millersburg, wh he was united to Miss Oellaw E. Courtn daughter of William J. Courtney. Her fam in the paternal line is of English descent, grandfather having emigrated from the Brit Isles to America. Mr. and Mrs. Appleton the parents of four children, as follo Theresa, wife of Theodore Heinig, of Dayt Katherine, wife of Harold C. Maltby, of t city; Margaret L., at home; and William Cou ney, a graduate of the Dayton high-scho who is now preparing himself as a scient and practical electrician at Rose Polytech school, Terre Haute, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. pleton are members of the Central church Christ, where Mr. Appleton renders effici service on its official board.

W. J. COURTNEY.

The subject of this brief sketch is a native of Harford County, Md. He was born April 3d, 1821, and was the fifth son of Edward and Casandra Courtney, both natives of Harford County, Md. His grandparents were all natives of England. He emigrated with his parents to Ohio in 1827. They located in Stark County, where all around was one vast wilderness, nine miles south of what is now known as Alliance. He remained with his parents on the farm until the fall of 1841, when he repaired to Millersburg for the purpose of learning a trade. He engaged with J. G. Houk as an apprenticed saddler for two years, continuing for three years after as a journeyman, whereupon he purchased the entire establishment, at which business he continued till 1858, when he began photography, to which he still adheres. He was united in marriage to Miss Hannah M. Shaw, who was born in Millersburg, O., May 3d, 1829, on the 3d day of June, 1847. They have reared a family of nine children, five of whom are still living; two are married and live in Holmes County: Oellaw E. to Mr. J. M. Appleton, Howard W. to Maria L. Anthenridge; three remain at home. Mr. and Mrs. Courtney are faithful members of the Disciple Church at Millersburg, O. Mr. Courtney has been a strong supporter of the religious and educational interests of his county.

EDWARD SMITH, Esq.

Edward Smith, Esq., was born in Frederick Co., Va., on the 6th day of January, 1819. He moved with his parents to Jeromeville, Ashland County, O., in 1823. From thence moved to Holmes County in 1824, where he now resides. His first union with Miss Loticia Lee was blessed with one son. His second with Miss Martha J. Young with three sons and one daughter. His third with Miss Martha Young with six sons and three daughters. He is the father of fourteen children, ten of whom are still living; four died in infancy and rest in Heaven with their sainted mothers. Mr. Smith lives on lot 19, in Paint Valley, surrounded by his children and grandchildren. He is a faithful member of the Congregational Church, having been a class leader in the M. E. Church for fifteen years.

ROBERT JOHNSTON, Esq.

The subject of this sketch was born in Fayette County, Pa., in 1798. In 1822 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary A. Buchanan, of the same county. They immediately located in Monroe Township, Holmes County, Ohio. Here Mr. Johnston pursued the occupation of cooper and farmer, until he built the Paint Valley sawmill, which still stands on the old site, now owned by Miller & Hoy. God has blessed them with eight children, seven of whom are still living; one in Iowa, and another in Wooster, Wayne County, Ohio. One of whom, James Johnston, the author of this sketch had the pleasure of calling upon, and must say that his hospitality is inimitable. He had the kindness to show us eleven of the most perfectly preserved and interesting Indian relics it ever was our privilege to examine. Consisting of a genuine "pipe of peace," stone ornaments of the most elaborate workmanship, and tomahawks, darts, etc., forming one of the most interesting and valuable cabinets of specimens of workmanship of the red man of the forest. These specimens were gathered by the hand of our kind host during a life of industrious yeomanry. Mr. Andrew Johnston lives upon the old homestead with his aged mother. In this family society has found some of her most useful members, such as surveyors, farmers, machinists, and teachers. Mrs. Mary A. Johnston still lives upon the old homestead, blessing children and grandchildren, having attained to the ripe old age of 74 years. May the memory of this aged couple long be cherished, and may their good example shine as a beacon light to the rising generations.

SAMUEL DAVENPORT.

Samuel Davenport was born in Fayette County, Pa., on March 19th, 1803 He moved to Hamilton County, O., in 1820, from thence he moved to Wayne County in 1822, when 19 years of age. He was married to Rebecca Kimerer, of Va., in 1826. God blessed them with five children, three sons and two daughters; two boys are dead, and are resting in Heaven with their dear mother, who died in March, 1872. There are living Jacob in Indiana, Lovina and Hannah in Holmes County, Ohio, where now resides the subject of this sketch, who has reached the age of 71 years, surrounded by his children and great-grandchildren; still enjoying a remarkable degree of physical strength, suffering, however, from a loss of sight.

CHARLES ALLISON.

Charles Allison was born in Washington County, Pa., on May 29th, 1802. In 1826 he was united in marriage to Miss Jane Crane, of the same county. They moved to Holmes County, O., in 1834, on the quarter now owned by David Allison, three-quarters of a mile northwest of Centreville in Monroe Township. Their union was blessed with seven children, one son and six daughters, two of whom are living, David and Mamie; David on lot 10 in Monroe Township, and Mamie with her aged mother in Centreville, Monroe Township. Charles Allison departed this life in April, 1869, in his 66th year, leaving a widow and six children and a large circle of friends to mourn the loss of a faithful husband, kind father, good neighbor, and devoted Christian.

JOHN MILLER, Esq.

John Miller was born in Beaver County, Pa., in 1802. He moved to Ohio in 1820, and located in Monroe Township, Holmes County, where he remained for eleven years. He was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss Sarah Bell in December. The following spring he located on the farm now occupied by his widow and two of his sons, William and Albert, where he lived the life of an industrious yeoman, until the great I AM called him home to reap the rewards of a faithful husband, kind father, and devoted Christian. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were faithful members of the U. P. Church in Hardy Township for twenty-five years. God blessed his union with the object of his choice with ten children, four of whom are still living; two in Cedar County, Iowa. The other two live on the old homestead with their aged mother; useful members of society, industriously and faithfully pursuing the footsteps of their lamented father.

JOHN L. RIGGS.

The subject of this sketch was born in Vermont on the 27th of January, 1794. He was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Foster, on the 29th of April, 1818, in Stockholm, N. Y., by Rev. Hiram S. Johnson, of Hopkinton. He is the father of eight children, two of whom are dead; six are still living, one in Iowa, two in Indiana, two in Ohio, and one in Pennsylvania. Mr. Riggs entered a large tract of land situated on Black Creek, in Knox township, upon which he reared his log cabin, amid the wilderness of the western forest. Only one or two human beings lived within miles of this pioneer's cabin. He was a hardworking honest yeoman, working at night to earn the money with which to purchase books. He was a teacher in public schools, and was a ready and able quoter of the Bible, a constant reader of its sacred pages, and drew daily food from it constantly. Before his death he made the following distribution of his vast estate: 73 acres of which he willed to his adopted daughter, Mary Jane; 43 acres to Elizabeth; 66 to Richard M.; to the others he gave large sums of money at different times, thus assisting all his children to make a start in the world, reserving till his death the old homestead, consisting of 168 acres, which he willed to his grandchild, Enoch M. P. Riggs, whom he raised from infancy, who took care of him until death released him of all pain. John L. Riggs departed this life in the 76th year of his age, on the 5th day of January, 1871.

JOHN VANCE.

The subject of this sketch was a native of the State of Pennsylvania. He was born in Fayette County in 1820, on New Year's Day. From thence he moved to Ohio with his parents in 1825, who settled on the farm in Knox Township, familiarly known now as the old Vance place. He was united in the holy bonds of wedlock on the 27th of September, 1845, to Miss Mary Hughes, of Knox Township, Holmes County, Ohio, who was born on the 18th day of March, 1827. His union with the object of his choice was blessed with six children, five daughters and one son; all of whom are still living; Sophronia A. and Lydia R. being married, and are honored and useful members of society. Emma M., Millie J., Ida V., and Joseph all remain with their mother, who lives upon lot 3 in Knox Township.

Mr. Vance departed this life on the 30th day of October, 1870, in his 48th year, leaving a widow, six children, and a large circle of friends to mourn the loss of a faithful husband, kind father, good neighbor, and devoted Christian Mr. and Mrs. Vance were faithful members of the M. E. Church in Knox Township for about twenty-five years.

NOAH COX.

The subject of this sketch was a native of Coshocton County, Ohio; born in 1812. In September, 1846, he was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to the object of his choice, Miss Susan Lepley, of Knox County, who was born in 1823. This pioneer couple settled upon the farm now known as the old Bird farm in Monroe Township, lot 1, S. E. corner of section 3, upon which stands one of the oldest residences in Monroe Township. Here, in this old picturesque stone castle, have gathered the aged, the young, and the gay, where joy, happiness, and peace have abounded for nearly half a century.

In this ancient and picturesque structure, which presents to the eye of the weary traveller an appearance at once interesting and inviting, the author of this sketch found not only rest and refreshment, but congenial and interesting companionship. Late at night we bade our host and his excellent family good night and sought a night of quiet repose, which none but a weary civil engineer knows how to appreciate. We found the hospitality of this exemplary family irresistible.

The union of Mr. Cox with the object of his choice was blessed with eight children, seven of whom are still living, and useful members of society. The other one awaits the gathering of the family in that home where separation will be known no more. Mr. and Mrs. Cox, with some older members of the family, adhere to the Protestant Methodist Church. God has blessed them abundantly in wealth, health, and peace.

EDWARD BEALL.

Mr. Edward Beall was born October, 1816, in Wayne County, Ohio. He settled in Holmes County in Monroe Township in 1843. He was united to his present wife, Mrs. Catharine Kanaval, who was born in 1831, in Lebanon County, Pa., in September, 1872. He is the father of nine children, six of whom are living; three are sleeping the sleep that knows no waking. Mr. and Mrs. Beall live upon the old place familiarly known as the Barton place, situated three-quarters of a mile east of Centreville in Monroe Township.

WILLIAM MURRY, Esq.

William Murry was born in Alleghany County, Pa., in 1828; moved to Ohio in 1833 He was married to Miss M. J. Moreland, of Va., in 1856. God has blessed them with six children, five of whom are living. They are both members of the Presbyterian Church. May they ever be prosperous, and may their children grow up useful members of society.

JOHN PHILIPS.

Mr. John Philips was born April 6th, 1806, in Washington County, Pa He was united in marriage to Miss Hester Crane, in 1828, who was born July 20th, 1811. They moved to Ohio in 1835, on lot 19, near Centreville, Monroe Township, when all around was one vast wilderness. God has blessed them with nine children, four boys and five girls. Two boys are living in Iowa, and two are dead. Four girls are living in Holmes County, O.; the other one is resting with her brothers in the quiet churchyard. Mr. and Mrs. Philips are faithful members of the Disciple Church. About twenty grandchildren surround them, honoring them only as those are honored who win our respect and love by a consistent Christian life.

In Reply to: George MYERS & Naomi EVERLY - 1800s by Carrie 553 of 990 Go

I also am looking for the parents of George Myers and Naomi Everly. Unfortunately there were about 3000 people named George Myers in that time period and it's hard to narrow it down. As for their children, I do know one. They had a son John Wesley Myers. He was born jan. 4, 1840 in Wayne Co. Ohio. He died Nov 20, 1908 in Cortland, Ill. His wife was Lucia Lurene Crandall. I have more on their descendants and alot on lucia's family. Contact me if I can help.

John Myers, a son of George Washington and Susannah M. Myers, was married to Mary Catherine Auzenbaugh in Pennsylvania in the year 1818 and later moved to New Washington, Ohio and bought 96 acres of his fathers land where he raised to manhood and womanhood ten of seventeen children and lived himself to the age of 79 years, 9 months, and 7 days. Dying on February 24, 1872.
He, his wife, and seven children together with his father and mother are buried in the cemetery in the little city of New Washington, Ohio.
Up until this time (1872) the Myers' spelled their name "M e i r s" and no one seems to know just when or who changed that spelling to that of the present.
It is said that from a small child John Myers had white hair, which never changed. He was a great hunter. Leaving home and to be gone for many weeks at a time, his family knowing nothing of his whereabouts. He was also a very good walker, having walked 60 miles a day even at the age of sixty and at seventy he drew the furrows for ten acres of corn with a horse and a single shovel plow in one day.
The names of the children of John and Mary Catherine are as follows: Abraham, John, Susan, Mary, Thomas, Jacob, Elizabeth, James C., Phoebe, and Josiah.##########################

Helen, I'm going to nibble at this, piece by piece. Remember "History of Olde Nothfield?" On page 10 it has a list of householders there in 1827. Included are Thomas Appleton and Jeremiah and Abraham Cranmer. So they were there at least a year before the guardianship.

The guardianship remains a great mystery, because Thomas and Hannah were still having kids into the 1830's, weren't they? Maybe Thomas caught some kind of incapacitating illness (from which he later recovered) but in the meantime, Hannah was unable to provide for the kids.

Subject: Wandering Thoughts

With no particular plan, I've been wandering through a lot of websites. Some unconnected observations came through.

Samuel Ryland owned 19 acres of land in Belmont Co. Could not find him on any early tax lists but there appeared to be many missing pages to those. In the 1820 census they had a 10-16 yr. old male living with them. The deed of sale on those 19 acres could tell us some good stuff (or be a dud).

William Ryland of Vermillion Twp. Ashland Co. OH also came from Bedford Co. PA. Bought a farm there in 1815. Did we ever try to track him?

Could Hannah Myers Ryland have gone to Wayne Co. to "Uncle" Henry Ryland's? Instead of her parents home?

Some misc. deeds: George Myers of Stark Co. purchased land in Marion Co. 2 Dec. 1830
George Myers of Columbiana Co. OH purchased land in Marion Co. 5 Sept. 1842
George Myers of Wayne Co. OH purchased land in ? – 24 Feb. 1827

Samuel Ryland could be buried in the Old Methodist Cemetery, Saint Clairsville, OH but I couldn't find a full listing of burials there.

There was a George Myers who married Naomi Everly. They had a son John Wesley Myers born 4 Jan. 1840 in Wayne Co. OH. John Wesley mar. Lucia Lurene Crandall. John Wesley died in Cortland, IL on 20 Nov. 1908. Am planning on looking a little more for info. on these people.

Hi John!

Wow, maybe we'll be able to help each other out a bit :) Sure would be nice! Your 'Hanna' rings a bell as being a possible daughter of my Abraham. I haven't been able to do any research for quite some time and all of my current records are at my home in California and I am currently here in Ithaca, NY. There was one interesting thing about my Abrahm Myers that I may have not mentioned in my posts (I don't recall at the moment), but when I received his son's death certificate - Joseph - it stated that his parents names were Abraham Meyer and Elizabeth Meyer and that both Abraham and Elizabeth were born in Ohio - not PA. Two things about the certificate didn't make any sense to me: 1) that Elizabeth's maiden name was listed as 'Meyers', and 2) that both Abe and Elizabeth were said to be born in Ohio. Given that the death record put Joseph's birth place as being PA, something just didn't seem right. So I did some research on when OH and PA were made states and according to history, the state borders between OH and PA changed a couple of times. So the only thing I could figure is that at the time of Abe's and Elizabeth's births perhaps the state boundary lines were considered part of the Ohio territory and then later when Joseph and his siblings were born the boundary had officially changed to being PA. Since Ohio officially was recognized as a state in 1803 while PA became a state in 1787, and I figure both Abraham and Elizabeth were born around 1760-1775 this could all fit. I still cannot figure Elizabeth's maiden name. Until now I had guessed that whoever provided the information regarding Abraham and Elizabeth's birth places (most likely Joseph) may have not actually known Elizabeth's maiden name and so just gave her married name for the records. However, now that I think about it more it is highly likely that Elizabeth may actually have been a cousin to Abraham as it was not uncommon for cousins to marry back then.

I am almost certain that Abraham and Elizabeth's children consisted of Samuel, Isaac, Jacob, Henry or Heinrich, Joseph (my gggrandad), Johnathan, Christof or Christopher, and possibly Michael. Many years ago I learned that the naming tradition for children in German families (Prussian) was to name the 1st born son after the father's father and to give the children middle names that corresponded to the mother's maiden name. So, now if you look at the census records of early Wayne County you will see all of the boys' names I just mentioned listed with the middle initial of 'B'. I coupled that with the well established Bechtel/Buchtel family also in Wayne County and also whom had migrated to Ohio around the same time as the Myers's did and that all gave me the idea that Elizabeth could very well have been Elizabeth Bechtel. Samuel is - and I'm 100% certain of this - the oldest child of Abraham and Elizabeth. I'm convinced that likewise a 'Samuel' Meyers must be Abraham's father. Based on that I was able to find a location in PA where there was a Samuel Meyers living and in the same neighborhood also lived the Bechtel families. By the time all these folks moved to Ohio which had to be prior to 1829, John, Samuel, and Isaac (Abraham's son's would all easily have been old enough to be moving around of their own free will. Joseph was born in 1801 and he was born in PA.

The VanOsdoll family I have traced back to the very early 1500s to what is now Belgium. The Meyer line is beyond doubt from Prussia or what is now Germany and they came from a region of Germany that bordered Switzerland. The other piece that I will point out is that I have discovered many variations of the spelling of the Myers name in my family ancestry......Meyer, Meyers, Myers, Moyer, Moyers, and Miers. Interestingly enough some of these variations occur all within one family line, i.e. My Great Grandfather - Peter - was said to have gone by the spelling of 'Myers'; however, he and his wife - Catherine - had 5 known children, likely 6 - they being Joseph, William (Curt), Elizabeth (Rose), Arizona, and Montana (my Grandpa). However, Peter's Civil War service record has his name as 'Moyers' and his death record also has his name spelled as 'Moyers'. Joseph went by 'Myers', Curt went by 'Moyer', Rose went by 'Meyers', Arizona went by 'Meyers' and Montana went by 'Myers'. The sixth child I found in an obscure record was named Samuel and he died @ about age 2.

Dear Thomas,

I've been reading your postings 2004-2007 on the Wayne County list, and I have the same frustrations that you do. My gggg grandmother, Hannah Myers, married Samuel Ryland in BEDFORD Co, Pa, in 1817.
I suspect she was b. about 1798. They moved to Belmont Co, Ohio, in late 1819, where Samuel died in Oct 1823. After his death, according to a published biography, she and her two children "went to live with her parents" in WAYNE County. So I had to find a Myers that not only was old enough to have chidren before 1800, but that I could prove was in Wayne Co by 1820. Your
(and possibly my) Abraham fits the bill: b. c. 1765, and according to "History of Wayne
Co, Ohio" 1878, p. 836, among the earliest settlers were John, Abram (Abraham), and Isaac Myers. Your Samuel Vanosdail is there as well. Now, at this point I cannot prove that Abraham was Hannah's father, but I can find no other worthy candidates in Wayne Co at that time.

Another point: just because Hannah married in Bedford Co does not imply the family was from there -- as they moved west, many families would stop in one place for a decade or two before moving on. But we may be able to find some valuable (land, probate, etc) records there.

Your last dispatch to the list was 2006 or 2007, so I hope you have made progress since then. Your "brick wall" is the same as mine: not only may we be looking at the same Myers family, but where did they come from?

Sincerely,
John F. Ryland

THE BROWER GENEALOGY

There are many people who have tried to trace the Brower Genealogy but no one has been able to get much information. We know there were three brothers who came from Pennsylvania into Ohio: 1. Daniel P. 2. Perry 3. Pinkney.

I would like to say here and now this has been very difficult and I cannot state how authentic the early history is. I DO KNOW they came from New York to Pennsylvania; (records in Ohio Historical Society Library in Cleveland show that). I can also remember hearing my Grandmother Ellen (Brower) Leach saying the "Browers" came originally from Holland, so they were of Dutch descent; settled in New York at a very early date in American History. New York was then known as New Amsterdam; they located on what is now known as "Fifth Avenue". You know what that means. Could the title be proven, "WE" the heirs, would be the rich people of New York and not the moneyed people who do live there.

It might be possible with the records available today that the title could be proven, but it would take a vast amount of money, and even more time to do this, and no one, not even a group of people have that. It is just one of those things that happened because titles were not recorded (no one inearly days thought it necessary), and now it is too late to even try it. I remember Uncle Gene Leach said he was going to gather the data and prove our rights, but he gave up; not enough money to carry thru.

I am not sure this is the correct order of birth, but I think it is.

1. DANIEL P. BROWER, b. ~~1792~~ (date on tombstone in N-M cemetery), but the 1850 census record of Summit County shows a discrepancy; died 10-11-1873; dates on tombstone are worn and writing on the microfilm not too legible; these dates make him 81 years old when he died. Married Matilda M. Ryland, 10-8-1832 by Justice Remington, Justice of the Peace of Bedford; (this is according to Cuyahoga County marriage license records in library in Cleveland); died 1885; buried in N-M cemetery.

Quote from "Pioneer Women", page 435 -- Mrs. Brower was a Pioneer woman in Northfield, coming from Bedford, Pa. in 1820 to Northfield Township, Summit County, Ohio; a kind mother of a gentle retiring nature."

Thru different sources I have come to accept the fact that they had a family of ten children; Lorenze, Daniel, Jr.; Emily; Calista; Mary; Eunice; Edward; Ella Etta, George, Frank.

Below is a copy of the 1850 census of Northfield, Summit County, Ohio as shown on microfilm in Library of the Historical Society of Ohio.

Daniel Brower	age 47	came from New York (B/D would have to be 1803) d-1873
Matilda Brower	36	" " Bedford, Pennsylvania born 1818; died 1885
Lorenzo	16
Daniel	14
Emily	12
Calista	10
Mary	8
Eunice	2

The other names I secured from Alt~~o~~a Peck, whose mother was Ella Etta; and from another descendant who lives in Cleveland.

Thru the assistance of Alt~~o~~a (Peck-Walton) Haggett, Twinsburg, Ohio, and Helen (Shall) Hill, Cleveland, Ohio, I have been able to gather a bit of the history of Daniel Brower, Sr. Helen Hill died in 1962 or 1963.

1. Lorenz~~a~~o Brower, married and had a large family; only one child is alive today (7-15-1960); wife's name is unknown. Lorenz~~a~~o moved to Missouri. (KANSAS) They had at least one daughter, whose name was Emily. Picture on the opposite page is a print copied from a small snapshot taken at the Brower reunion August 12, 1911, at the home of Charles Peck and wife, Ella Etta Brower, a sister of Lorenza's. It belongs to Alto Peck Haggett. Grandmother Ellen Brower Leach was a first cousin of Lorenzo's. If I have it figured out correctly, Mother and Lota were there. Alta Peck thinks my Dad is in the picture but I disagree with her on that. If Dad was there I had to stay in the store and postoffice.

2. Daniel Brower, Jr., married, but wife's name unknown; two children; 1. Linna (Linnie); Lottie.

1. Linna Brower, married Charles Crail; two children; 1. Leon Crail 2. Howard Brower Crail.

1. Leon Brower; married; wife's name unknown; both deceased; no children.

2. Howard Brower Crail, Cleveland Policeman; deceased, (but I remember him); married to Janet Lewis; four children; 1. Vernon 2. Allen 3. Jack 4. Leon. I visited Janet in Florida in March 1958. She lives in a nicely furnished trailer at Daytona Beach in a Trailer Court. Again in April,1962, Alta Burns and I visited Janet Crail; the four of us, Alto and George Haggett, Alta Burns and Janet Crail and I took a trip to Marine Land; a very enjoyable trip as we got to see the trained propoises , and are they funny? Janet loves to dance and is a good cook; we had lunch with her. Janet went to Europe to visit her son who is connected with the Boy Scout Organization.

2. Lottie Brower (sister of Linna) Lottie's mother died when she was 18 months old; her father, Daniel Brower, Jr. died when she was 3 years ole, so not much information is a ailable. She married Clarence E. Shall, and they had one child; 1. Helen E.; married James Hill and lives in Cleveland; two children; 1. James Alan 2. Judith Ann. This Helen Shall Hill gave me part of the information I have. She died in 1964.

3. Emily Brower, (third child of Daniel Brower, Sr. and Matilda M. Ryland; born 5-8-1892, buried in N-M cemetery; married 3-16-1854 to George Curtis, born 2-15-1834; died 12-19-1914. Both Emily and George are buried in the N-M cemetery. Records in the Library of the Historical Society of Ohio in Cleveland showed they were married by J.H. McCarty (Minister). These photos were loaned to me by Josephine Dodds Curtis, widow of Charles A. Curtis; she was living March 15, 1963, in Strongsville, Ohio, with her daughter, Emily. Exact number of children born to Emily Brower and Geo. S. Curtis is not know, but at least five; 1. Ellen Matilda (Ella); 2. Charles A. 3. George Ellsworth; 4. Francis (Frankie); 5. Minnie.

Quotation from Women who came to the Western Reserve before 1840 -- "Mrs. Daniel Brower (Matilda Ryland)"; and it also states that her children, Emily, Calista, Mary, Edward, Ella, were born in Northfield Twp."

Thru the assistance of Alta (Peck-Walton) Haggett, Twinsburg, Ohio, and Helen (Snell) Hill, Cleveland, Ohio, I have been able to gather a bit of the history of Daniel Brower, Sr. Helen Hill died in 1962 or 1963.

1. Lorenzo Brower, married and had a large family; only one child is alive today (7-12-1969); wife's name is unknown. Lorenzo moved to Missouri. They had at least one daughter, whose name was Emily. Picture on the (brown) opposite page is a print copied from a small snapshot taken at the Brower reunion August 12, 1911, at the home of Charles Peck and wife, Ella Etta Brower, a sister of Lorenzo's. 2. Daniel Brower, Jr., married, but wife's name unknown; two children; 1. Linna (Linnie); Lottie.
1. Linna Brower, married Charles Crall; two children; 1. Dean Crall 2. Howard Brower Crall.
Dean Brower; married; wife's name unknown; both deceased; no children.
2. Howard Brower Crall, Cleveland Policeman; deceased, (but I remember him); married to Janet Lewis; four children; 1. Vernon 2. Allen 3. Jack 4. Leon. I visited Janet in Florida in March 1969. She lives in a nicely furnished trailer at Daytona Beach in a Trailer Court. Again in April,1970, Alta Burns and I visited Janet Crall; the four of us, Alta and George Haggett, Alta Burns and Janet Crall and I took a trip to Marine Land; a very enjoyable trip as we got to see the trained porpoises , and are they funny? Janet loves to dance and is a good cook; we had lunch with her. Janet went to Europe to visit her son who is connected with the Boy Scout Organization.

3. Lottie Brower (sister of Linna) Lottie's mother died when she was 18 months old; her father, Daniel Brower, Jr., died when she was 2 years old, so not much information is available. She married Clarence E. Snell, and they had one child; 1. Helen E.; married James Hill and lives in Olive Lane; two children; 1. James Alan 2. Judith Ann. This Helen Snell Hill gave me part of the information I have. She died in 1964.

3. Emily Brower, (third child of Daniel Brower, Sr. and Matilda N. Ryland; born 8-4-1841, buried in N-M cemetery; married 8-16-1858 to George Curtis, born 2-15-1836; died 12-19-1914. Both Emily and George are buried in the N M cemetery. Records in the Library of the Historical Society of Ohio in Cleveland showed they were married by J.H. McCarty (Minister). These photos were loaned to me by Josephine Dodds Curtis, widow of Charles A. Curtis; she was living March 15, 1969, in Streetsboro, Ohio, with her daughter, Emily. Exact number of children born to Emily Brower and Geo. E. Curtis is not known, but at least five; 1. Ellen Matilda (Ellie); 2. Charles A. 3. George Ellsworth; 4. Francis (Frankie); 5. Minnie.

Quotation from Women who came to the Western Reserve before 1850 -- "Mrs. Daniel Brower (Matilda Ryland)"; and it also states that her children, Emily, Celista, Mary, Edward, Riley, were born in Northfield Twp.

Mildred Cady and Lena Forbes take note -- This Lottie~~d~~ Brower (mentioned on other side of this sheet) is, I think the girl you thought was Mary B Brower Edwards' daughter. She was but 18 months old when her mother died and he father died when she was 3 years old, so naturally someone had to raise her. What more natural than a sister of the mother should take the child and raise her, and probably many times the child was taken to be her daughter. I have the faintest remembrance of this being the case, but am not sure.

Also I do not know if the Wm. Edwards Company, wholesale grocers, Cleveland, were any relation of the Edwards Mary Brower married. I do remember that Dad bought groceries from this Company when he had the store.

1. Ellen (Ella) Matilda Curtis married George Leach Williams:

For the history of Ellen Curtis, see history of George Leach Williams in the Leach Genealogy; a history of Ellen at this point would only be a repetition of what you already have.

2. Charles A. Curtis (2nd child of Amily Brower Curtis; b. in Boston Township; buried in N-M cemetery; lived in Little York much of his life with the Lorin Oviatt's, as a hired hand. He was married in 1916 to Josephine Dodds, and they made their home in Little York on Brandywine road almost next door to where the Frank Cross family now lives (1963). Jo is now in her 80's, but one would never guess her age to be that, as she surely gets around, and is very spry; the envy of many people much younger. She often visits in Northfield and Cuyahoga Falls. Lives with her only child, Emily M.

1. Emily M. Curtis married Myron Wilbur Dunlap in Strongsville, Ohio. Emily has her own paper route; drives a car. Often gets up and leaves the house at 2:00 a.m. in order to make her deliveries on time; her husband has another job, but helps her on Sundays. They have five children and their birth dates were given to me in 1960. 1. James Jay, 19; 2. Gloria Jean, 16; 3. William Charles, 12; 4. Robert Edward, 10; 5. Alvin Patrick, 4½.

3. Francis (Frankie) Curtis, daughter of Emily Brower and Augustus S. Curtis (George); married Henry Maxam, by whom she had one child, Jessie. Henry Maxam died and she married Harry (Hal) Vail as her second husband.

1. Jessie Maxam, b. 1886; now deceased; married 1. John Battin; 2. Lloyd Way; Jessie Maxam and John Battin had one child, Laura Lin, born 1907. Jessie Maxam and Lloyd Way had four children; 1. Erma 2. Frederick 3. Jeanette 4. Don Eugene. I have no further information on this family. (Lloyd Way was first cousin to Eva Milz Leach)

4. George Augustus Curtis (1863-1910) married Emma J. Bell of Streetsboro, Ohio. They lived in Twinsburg, Ohio, at one time, but both are buried in the N-M cemetery. To them were born two daughters, both of whom are deceased. I think one was named Ada; there are grandchildren, but I know nothing of them.

5. Minnie E. Curtis, daughter of Emily and Geo. Augustus Curtis; born 1886, Boston Township. They lived much of their married lives in Brandywine, at the top of the hill near the old school house; she had married Charles E. Falor; to them was born one child, Harold LeRoy Falor.

1. Harold LeRoy Falor (known as Roy); res. Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. Born 1895 in Northfield; attended Bedford Hight School; also took an I.C.S. course an electrical engineer with Ohio Edison of Akron for many years (1913-1962) Married 1921 to Gladys Louanna Boam, b. 1899, Hudson, a sister of Bessie Boam Goosman, a well known teacher in Northfield and Macedonia. Gladys attended Bedford High School and later Akron Institute of Music; a piano teacher and homemaker; she went to school to me in the 6th grade when I taught in the old Town Hall building; to Roy and Gladys was born one daughter; Judith Ann, b. Cuyahoga Falls; attended Cuyahoga Falls high school and Akron Institute of Music. Now with the American Air L ines in Los Angeles, Calif.; unmarried, or was when the information was given to me some time ago.

4. Calista Brower, married 2-22-1865 to Cyrus F. Carr~~y~~ CARR by Michael Williams (recorded in library of Ohio Historical Society in Cleveland, compiled and published by the Daughters of America Revolution. No further information.

5. Mary M. Brower (the 5th child of Daniel P. Brower, Sr. and Matilda Ryland); married 1-31-1865 to John R. Edwards by Michael Williams (same records as above). Four children born to Mary M. Brower and John R. Edwards. 1. Pearl 2. John, Jr. 3. Sadie 4. J.R. (always known as J.R.)

1. Pearl Edwards, married Dorsey Foote (both deceased); one child who died in infancy.

2. John Edwards, Jr., married (1) Jennie Ewald; both deceased; one child, Helen Edwards; unmarried. Helen Edwards and Howard Crail are two of the younger people I remember coming out to Charlie Peck's to reunions. Not necessarily the one shown in the large picture, as they had reunions at different times. I remember Edna going to one reunion. Howard Crail seemed to be the only young man, and of course popular with all the girls, as he was very good looking.

2. John Edwards, Jr. married (2) Mae Foss. Mae was living in Florida when she died; buried in Acacia Park Cemetery on Northfield Rd., Mayfield Heights, Ohio, near Cleveland; not in the Masonic division. She took Alta Haggett, Janet Crail and myself to a very nice luncheon when I was in Florida in 1958 at Daytona Beach. Two children born to John Edwards,Jr. and Mae Foss. 1. John Edwards, IV; unmarried. 2. Harry F. Edwards, married ______Selby. Two children born to Harry F. Edwards and ___Selby. 1. Rudolph Edwards 2. Selby Edwards.

3. Sadie Edwards, daughter of Mary Brower and John R. Edwards, married George McCulley; no childre; died 1962; buried in Woodlawn Cemetery in Cleveland. She was living in Cleveland at time of death, and was both blind and deaf for at least five years before that.

4. J.R. Edwards, moved to Cincinnati; married but wife's name unknown; two sons.

✓ 6. Edward Brower; son of Daniel Brower, Sr. and Matilda M. Ryland; no information of him.

7. Ella Etta Brower, 1854-1912, 7th child of Daniel Brower, Sr. and Matilda M. Ryland. Married Charles C. Peck (1848-1929); both buried in N-M cemetery. These are their wedding pictures. Alta loaned them to me. The thing I distinctly remember about Ella Peck, was her beautiful white hair; it seemed to me she must have been born with it. I can't remember her having any other color hair. Both Protestants, Presbyterian church in Northfield. Charlie Peck was the son of Chauncey Peck (who was originally from England) and Maria Wood. Maria was the daughter of Henry Wood and Esther Cranmer; theirs was the first marriage in Northfield Township, 1813. Charles Peck was a farmer, living on Rt. 631 or Valley View Rd., west of the N-M cemetery. His daughter-in-law, Lillis Means Peck, Earl's widow still lives in the old farmhouse. The above marriage - Wood-Cranmer makes Alta and Earl direct descendants of the first settlers of Northfield Twp.

Mildred Williams Cady can remember the time when Frank Vail (Edna's Husband) had his legs amputated after a street car accident, and she said her Aunt Mary Brower Edwards lived near St. Alexis hospital. After they had taken Frank home, and Mildred's mother was in bed at Lena's home in Little York with a stroke (completely paralyzed) (oh, she could mumble a few words) Mary came out to see Ella and offered to lend them a hospital bed for Ella which she had had for someone in her family. Mary Brower was anaunt of Ella Williams, and a great aunt of Mildred's. She can remember her bringing Lottie with her, whom Mildred thought was her daughter but was really her neice whom Mary Brower Edwards had raised from childhood.

Besides being a farmer, Charles Peck was the substitute rural mail carrier; Earl was the regular carrier. He was also a member of the old Bliss Band. From now on all persons will be of the Protestant faith unless marked with a capital "C"; if I make an error, someone please correct me.

At the time Aunt Ella Peck died I was working as a stenographer at the McMyler Interstate Company in Bedford. Earl was the regular carrier, so it made a bad situation -- no one to deliver the mail. I was a sworn clerk in the post office, so had to ask for two days off from my job to deliver the mail. Dad couldn't because he was the post master and had to remain in the office and take care of the store as well. It was an all day's job, so I started out with old Buff; at first it seemed like a lark, but much of the road was lonely -- few houses near the road. Dad gave me a bag of oats for Buff and Mother packed me a lunch. He told me to stop at the home of Jake Richey (Clarence's father) rest, feed and water my horse; eat my lunch. When Mr. Richey saw me, he came out and took my horse and took care of her; he sent me into the house to eat dinner with the family as they were just ready to sit down at the table. The second day they did the same thing. So it was a nice break in a long hard day.

Two children born to Charles C. Peck and Ella Etta Brower. 1. Earl Ryland 2. Mary Alta.

1. Earl Ryland Peck (1882-1935); b. in Northfield Twp; buried in N-M cemetery; (I thing he died of pneumonia); farmed with his father; mail carrier out of the Northfield post office. Earl drove the best looking span of black mules on the RFD. Later he drove an automobile; I think he got stuck in the mud so much more often with the auto than he did with the mules, he probably wished many times he had the mules back.

Married to Lillis Means of Bedford; they went to High School together, graduating together from N.H.S. Lillis lives all alone, since her sister Bertha died, in the old farmhouse. She makes rag rugs on a loom which keeps her occupied, and often sells them at church bazaars or private sale. To Earl Peck and Lillis Means were born four children. 1. Charles Albert 2. Earl Ryland 3. Maryella 4. Jay M.

1. Charles Albert Peck, b. 1909, Northfield; owned and operated the Chevrolet agency and garage in what was once the old Town Hall; he sold out the agency and garage, but still owns a bus line which makes runs into Cleveland, following the canal route; has a garage for them on his Mother's farm, vack of her house. In the Fall of 1962 he was in a bad automobile accident and had a crushed knee; last report I had, he was at home on crutche Lives in a beautiful home on W. Highland around the bend from the Cross home on Brandywine road. Bus line closed in 1965. Married in 1931 to Mary Jane Balint; home maker and elementary school teacher. One child born to Charles A. Peck and Mary J. Balint; 1. Marilyn.

1. Marilyn Peck was born in 1932; married 1954 to Lloyd Waite of Macedonia; three children born to them; 1. Roger Albert, b. ____ 2. Lynn Diane, B. ______ 3. Susan Adele, b. _____

2. Earl Ryland Peck, Jr., b. 1912, Northfield; he was one of my pupils when I taught the 4th grade in the Elementary Grade School on the Public Square in 1922. Is a shop worker and lives in Cleveland. He was such a likeable youngster, but didn't like to study; very nervous. He married Betty Miller; two children; 1. Cheryl May, b. ____ 2. Robin Lee, b. ____

3. Maryella Peck, born 1915, Northfield; married 1941 to Robert Tonsing, Cousin of Eva Milz Leach and her children. She is a homemaker and lives directly across the road from her mother; looks like her mother, and looks after her mother, as much as Lillis will permit. She is very independent, Lillis. Maryella Peck and Bob Tonsing have one child; 1.Mary Lou Tonsing, b. 1943.

4. Jay M. Peck, b. 1918 or 1919 (Aunt Alta wasn't sure which date). Married 1946 to Jean Guarnere of Northfield in 1924. They live on theold Van Horn property on old Rt. 8 just south of the United Presbyterian church. I think they have done some remodeling. Jay served in W.W. II in the Army on the islands in the Pacific. Children born to Jay Peck and Jean Guarnere; 1. Jayne Patricia, b. 1947 2. James Charles, born 1950. 3. Janet Lillis, b. 1953 4. Judith Jean, b. 1959.

2. Mary Alta Peck, b. 9-4-1890, Northfield; Alta attended grade school in the Snatchpenny District, while I went to school in Little York; she went to the Presbyterian church and I, to the Methodist, but we did see each other quite often. She started to High School in Twinsburg because it was rated a ghigher grade High School. When Charles L. Burrell was principal of the High School, and superintendent of all the grade schools,he had told everyone we had a Second Grade High School, when in reality it was only a Third Grade. When the Board of Education finally woke up to the fact, he was asked to resign. Frank Moore from Westerville was hired as Principal and Superintendent; that was in my Sopymore year, and he took the position while I was at home at the time Clellwas sick and died. I heard a lot about the young new Principal (single) before I got started back to school. He finished that year, secured a Second Grade charter and had his sister, Mabel, hired the next year as his assistant. (Just recently Mabel has had a stroke, in the hospital for a month, and is now home.) (She lives with her younger sister, Edna, who was one of my teachers at Otterbein in two classes. Both Frank and Ione (an older sister) are deceased. I met the entire family several times when at Otterbein University from which all of them graduated. My senior year at Northfield, Alta came back to Northfield and we graduated in the same Class of 1907. She was Valedictorian, but I had much more fun and still had good grades; you ask her. L. W. Warren was our teacher when we graduated.

Alta was married (1) in 1913 to Melvin G. Walton (1882-1942) who owned a farm in Solon, Ohio, where they lived their married life; he is buried in a cemetery in Solon. We lived in Cleveland most of this time, so didn't get to see each other very often; neither automobiles or roads were as good then as today. Her second marriage was to George C. Haggett (see Left) of Twinsburg during W.W.II.

To get back to Melvin and Alta. They raised a lot of cauliflower as a sideline, and it was a lot of work to get it tied up at the proper time so as to bleach it. I remember she said they went out one night in the middle of the night to tie it up so it wouldn't freeze. They adopted a boy about 2 years old as they decided they would have no children of their own; also raised three foster children; the girls were sisters. Melvin died of a heart attack. Alta found him on the ground out beside the barn. After his death, she took up practical nursing. After the children were old enough to leave home, and did leave, she was such a good nurse, she had more work than she could do. She was on a case in Twinsburg when she met George Haggett. He was a confirmed bachelor until then. Her foster children simply worship her. She did a little nursing in emergincies after her second marriage.

George is slightly younger than Alta. They were married in a private home in Bedford, outside of close relatives, I was the only one invited to the wedding. I felt highly complimented. George was so nervous, Alta almost had a case on her hands that night. But Alta calmed him down. I wouldn't have missed it for the world. My youngsters were overseas. They live at 8860 Darrow Rd. in a lovely home, much of the work having been done by themselves. Geo. buys and sells various small articles which he gets mostly at auctions. He has been a farmer, driven a school bus, made and sold apple cider, attends sales both near home and in Florida when they spend a couple of months down there. He goes to a large auction sale at Hartville, Ohio. Many Amish people attend these sales. In fact, one auctioneer is an Amish man; but they are gradually becoming more modern, using automobiles instead of horses and buggies.
George has made Alta a good hsuband. Altho he never did a bit of housework before their marriage, he has learned to cook, because of Alta's poor health. Alta was past 70 yers old when she had her gall bladder removed. It seems as tho age has nothing to do with such operations any more. She and Alta Burns both came thru in good shape. Alta Haggett has pernicious anemia, and is compelled to take liver shots all the time.

Alta Burns is recovering from quite a bad nervous breakdown. I think possibly high blood pressure had something to do with it. Also,I wonder, did she overdo after her gall bladder operation. She went to work in 6 weeks in the restaurant; said she felt good.

Me!!! I've have had a case of bad nerves following high blood pressure; I believe the medicine used to reduce blood pressure has a bad effect on the nervous system. But I'm much better, thank goodness. Or I wouldn't be writing these pages. 12-1-1963.

Alta Haggett, besides being a homemaker and nurse, enjoys raising flowers, indoors and outdoors. She has thoroly enjoyed her little family of foster children and her one adopted child. George became a father, grandfather, and great grandfather in a very short period of time. It hasn't seemed to age him too much. Because of a new entrance to a main road, they had to sell and move to 2650 Aurora Road, Twinsburg; on Rt. 82, but back from the road a distance.

1. Harold Ol Walton, legally adopted by Melvin and Alta Peck Walton.
2. Clyde LeForest Halbritter, foster child of Melvin and Alta Walton.
3. Hazel Cecilia Allen) both raised as foster children by Waltons.
4. Blanche Allen)

FINIS -- the Daniel P. Brower and Matilda M. Ryland family history

It might be well to mention here that the Daniel Brower, Sr., home was on Brandywine Road, first house south of Burroughs corners; known in my day as the Curtis home; later the Black farm; and the last owner I remember was Ralph Horton, who operated the Ford Agency in Bedford, and for whom I worked in the office for two years after Frank died. There is a large Catholic cemetery being built between the house and the four corners -- W. Highlad and the Brandywine Road. The Curtis family lived across the road from Huddilston's, ~~east~~. This road goes east until it intersects old Rt. 8, and from there to Hudson.

The Pinkney Brower home was on top of the hill just a short distance south east of Brandywine Falls; it can be seen from the front yard of the Rex Burns home on W. Twinsburg Road; was owned for many years by Donald Johnson of Bedford.

2. Perry Brower; married, but wife's name unknown; buried in Harvard Grove cemetery in Cleveland. Two children; 1. Elgie (Elgey) 2. Mattie.

1. Elgie married Florence _______; two children born to Elgie and Flo. Brower. 1. Evelyn 2. Arthur T.
   1. Evelyn married Fred H. Robertson; lived on Scarborough Rd. in Cleveland. He was a structural engineer; after his retirement they lived in Florida. Evelyn was living with her daughter in Hudson when she died; I remember her at the reunions. She was 71 and is buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Twinsburg, Ohio. Three children born to Evelyn Brower and Fred Robinson.
      1. Florence married to Mr. Williams
      2. Betty married to Mr. West, Cleveland
      3. Joseph Roberson; nothing known of him.
   2. Arthur T. Brower, married (Wife's name unknown); res. 2481 Noble Rd Cleveland, Ohio. At the time of Lawrence Bliss' funeral in Bedford, this Arthur T. Brower came up to Ella McConnell and introduced himself, and asked her "Did she think he looked like the Brower's?" She replied she didn't know the Brower's well enough or remember them too well, to really answer him. I heard about this, and wrote him twice trying to find out more about the Perry Brower family. No answer to either letter.
2. Mattie Brower, daughter of Perry Brower and sister of Elgie Brower two marriages but no children. One husband's name was "Stang".

(Now this Perry Brower may be Perry, Sr. or Perry, Jr. We have no way of finding out.)

In the record of cemeteries in Cuyahoga County, I found the following: "Cuyahoga County Harvard Grove Cemetery (old Newburg) at Lansing and 64th Sts. on a tombstone the name Arthur Brower, son of Perry and Evelyn Brower so that makes me think the history goes back further than the record I have. Date was illegible -- very old inscription.

FINIS -- the Perry Brower family history -- at least all I am able to find.

3. Pinkney Brower, (3rd of the Brower brothers) married Mercy Post, the 10th child of Joshua Post II and Mollie Dee. Not much is known about Pinkney, except that he came from Pennsylvania into Ohio with his two brothers, Daniel, Sr. and Perry. But Mercy led rather a colorful life for those days. I have searched several cemeteries for some stone which may have marked his grave, but with no success. Maybe he "Went with the wind" over the Falls. He and Mercy lived in a large farmhouse on top of the hill going East after passing the Falls on Brandywine Road just a short distance before it intersects the Akron-Cleveland Rd. (Old Rt. 8) and continues on past The Cleveland Boys Farm and to Hudson. Owned for several years by Donald B. Johnson of Bedford. This house can be seen from Rex Burns' front yard.

After Pinkney's death, Mercy married a Mr. Hill and had one daughter, Alice This is the first time I ever knew that Grandmother and her brothers had a half-sister. Alice married Orville C. Clark. Mercy divorced Mr. Hill, and for this act was called before the Church Session. They thought she had married too soon after her divorce. But after learning all the facts, she was re-instated in the church. There is quite a long article about a Mr. Hill who lived in Twinsburg, Ohio, in the "History of Twinsburg" published in 1917 at time of the centennial by Lena Carter and Rev. R. T. Cross. Lena died in March, 1964. If this is the same Mr. Hill, she had reasons for a divorce. He was quite a character. I believe they were one and the same man -- but no first names were given in either case.

Mercy Post Brower Hill married Jedidiah Clard as his second wife. He was her third husband; both of them are buried in Forest Grove cemetery just off Rt. 82 going into Twinsburg. See picture of Clark monument on Page 54 in the Leach Genealogy.

To Pinkney Brower and Mercy Post were born four children; 1.Cyrus 2.Luther 3. Henry 4. Ellen

1. Cyrus Brower (1832-1912) born in Brandywine and died in Hudson of heart failure; he was 80 years old; buried in Markillie cemetery in Hudson off the Twinsburg-Hudson Road. He married Harriet Vail (2nd child of Edwin Vail and Hannah Post (aunt of Mercy Post), thus making them first cousins; also this clears up in my mind just how the Vails were related to the Leaches, which I've heard about but never could trace; it is rather far-fetched. Three children born to Cyrus Brower and Harriet Vail, as follows;
    1. Ola Blocher Brower, married Robert Harrington, no children.
    2. Ida May Brower, married William*Freemont Cross
    3. Effie Brower (1868-1891) Buried in Markillie cemetery, single
2. Ida May Brower (1858-1938) married William*Freemont Cross (1846-1912) accidental death; carpenter and wood cutter; buried in Bedford cemetery. Six children born to Ida Brower and William F. Cross. 1. Irma 2. Bess 3. John Odell 4. Budd LeRoy 5. Gordon Brower 6.MiltonGarford Ida Brower Cross and Grandmother Ellen Brower Leach were first cousins and in many ways looked alike, and both were dressmakers. Ida did some sewing for me. She didn't use any pattern. Held the material up to me, took measurements, and whang! the first think I knew I had a dress or coat.

* SHOULD BE FREEMAN, NOT FREEMONT.

1. Irma Estelle Cross (1877-1957) died of heart failure; buried in Bedford cemetery. Married to Lynn Levi Marble of the Marble Chair factory. One child born to Irma Cross and Lynn Marble; 1. Mary Kathryn, b. 1904; married to William Davis; divorced. To Mary Kathryn Davis and *William Davis was born one child; 1. Diane, b. 1935; married to James Kenneth Landon; one child. Kathryn has given me most of the information I have on this family; it is not too complete, as she, like some of the rest of us is getting older and dates escape her memory. JAMES + DIANE HAD 2 CHILDREN: LEIGHELLEN + LORI KATHLEEN

   * HOLLAND WILLIAM DAVIS ("HAP")

2. Bess Leola Cross (1881-1944) died of cancer; b. in Hudson and died in Bedford and buried in Bedford cemetery. Married Mortimer Cowles; as far as I know Mort Cowles is still living - 1963. No information otherwise. Bess Cross and Mortimer Cowles had one child; 1. Leonard, b. 1918; a musician; married to Belle ____; Leonard Cowles and Belle __ had two children; 1. Leonard, Jr. 2. ____________.

3. John Odell Cross (1882-1947), always called Odell; born in Hudson, died in Bedford and buried there. He was an accountant; married to Marian Leach (no relation of our Leach family); one child born to Odell Cross and Marian Leach; 1. Phyllis, who married Frank Ferguson. They have two children but I do not have names.

4. Budd LeRoy Cross (188_-1947), heart attack, buried in Bedford Cemetery, Budd was a natural musician; played the piano. Played for many dances at Bedford, where I danced many nights at the Bedford Glens. Married Sarah Wise of Macedonia (who was my competitor at a dance in Macedonia the second time I met Frank); he took turns dancing with the two of us; she had plenty of feminine appeal, but I won the man). Budd and Sarah had one child; 1. David Budd, who is a polio victim and lives in a wheel chair; he is a draftsman; married to Jeanette _______, and they live in Marion, Ohio. Born to David Budd Cross and Jeanette _________ three children; 1. Michael 1. Linda 3.____

   When Budd Cross was a boy he couldn't wait for a freight train to move (he wanted to get home in a hurry) so he crawled between two cars; got caught between two of them and his foot was caught, making him a cripple the rest of his life. Miss KUNZ (I've forgotten her name) but she was a well-known music teacher (piano) in Bedford, offered to give Budd lessons free as she recognized his ability, and knew he would be able to earn a living if given a chance. So he became a famous piano player. When Sarah Wise of Macedonia wanted to marry him, her father objected; she told him she would rather live in a chicken coop with Budd than in a mansion with any other man she knew. But the chicken coop became too small and she divorced him. She re-married and was divorced the second time. No children. Then she married (3) Phillip Haymes, Sr. of Macedonia, who really has money, and they live on the old Dresser farm on Shepard Road, near Rt. 82 (south).

5. Gordon Brower Cross (1889-1956), died of cancer, buried in Bedford. Married Lettie Maybelle Smith. Three children born to Gordon Cross and Lettie Smith; 1. Mary Joan 2. Martha 3. Kathryn
   1. Mary Joan Cross, Married Eugene Riddles, four children; 1. Linda 2. Gordon 3. Michael 4. Julia
   2. Martha Cross, married LEW BAanski. (BARANSKI) Three children; 1. Elaine 2. Cheryl 3. Bruce
   3. Kathryn Cross, married MARTIN JOHN Drusa. ~~Three~~ 4 children; 1. Alan 2. Terry 3. James 4. SALLY

6. Milton Garford Cross (1900-1928); suicide; buried in Bedford cemetery. Married Mathilde Howell; two children; 1.Barbara Ann 2. Patricia May
    1. Barbara Ann Cross, b. 1927; married 1952 to CLYDE CULVER ; one child, Lynn. Divorced.
    1. Barbara Ann Cross married to (2) Jack Galloway; three children; 1. Richard 2. John 3. ELIZABETH (girl)
    2. Patricia May Cross, married Merwin Biggs; divorced. Two children; 1. Deborah 2. Rebecca
    2. Patricia May Cross Biggs married (2) William Spevak. Three children 1. Pamela 2. AMY - 3. JODY (girls)

2. Luther Brower, b. 3-26-1834, Brandywine, Northfield Twp. Died 3-27-1892. Buried in N-M cemetery near his brother Henry and wife, Louisa Thompson, unmarried; at least I can find no record of a marriage in the Historical Library in Cleveland. I found where an L.H.Brower married a Lydia Faylor on 2-9-1857. Roy Falor says there is no such record in their family Bible, and anyhow they spell their name "Falor" -- no "y". But Grandmother always gave the impression that she was in some way related to theFalors in Brandywine. (She was, but thru Minnie Curtis, whose mother was Emily Brower.)

3. Henry Brower, b. 1835 in Brandywine; died March 1912 in Macedonia ofthe natural causes of old age. Buried in N-M cemetery; occupation, timberman; Quotation from That Carter (still living Dec. 1963) "Hank Brower owned the first automobile in Macedonia or Northfield; an International "horseless carriage" with a bar for steering instead of a wheel." Daughter Jean learned to drive it when she was 14 or 15 years of age. Married 12-19-1859 (1) Louisa M. Thompson, b. 1842, died 11-17-1892; buried in N-M cemetery. Louisa Thompson was the daughter of Elita Leach and Aaron Thompson of Twinsburg. Elita Leach was an own aunt of Luman Leach, making Louisa and Luman first cousins; Louisa was then a cousin by marriage to Ellen Brower Leach, and also a sister-in-law after she married Henry Brower, Ellen's brother. There were three daughters born to Henry Brower and Louisa M. Thompson; 1. Adah Augusta 2. Florence 31 Jennie Jane

    1. Adah Augusta Brower (1862-1947); she was a member of the Methodist church in Northfield; had high ambitions for Lawrence as a singer, but did not work out to her satisfaction; she was an enthusiastic worker in the N-M Cemetery Association. She was not happy about Lawrence's marriage. After the death of George and Lawrence's wife, Ada, she and Lawrence bought a trailer. They lieved in Northfield in the summertime and went to Florida in the Winter. They were living in their trailer parked on Lil Burroughts' lawn, next to the garden, when she died of old age, complications of different kins. Lawrence cared for his mother in her last days. Adah married George Bliss, b. 1851, Northfield. Member of the M.E. church. A farmer all his life He owned what was known as the "Bliss" swamp which lay between this farm and where new Rt. 8 now is located. It was full of quick-sand spots, had large lucious huckleberries, if you knew how to dodge the quick-sand. Good hunting place.

Here is a little story that Bessie Goosman told me shortly before she died. Bessie Boam Goosman's mother was a Vail and the Vails lived on Brandywine Road next to old Mitchell home; so Mr. and Mrs. Vail were her grandparents. "Luther", a bachelor, liked to go down to Vail's home in the evenings and play cards. Seems he was a little too "sweet" on her grandmother, which her grandfather did not like. Bessie was old enough to remember it.
Adah was born in Little York.

This particular swamp was bought by a Realty Company and a housing project developed, but they have their problems with water in their houses; only a few of them have basements. To Adah Brower and George Bliss was born one child; 1. Lawrence Ambrose Bliss.

1. Lawrence Ambrose Bliss (1886-1960); after his mother's death, he spent most of his time in Lakeland, Florida (playing shuffle board) coming North now and then for a short time in the summer. He was found dead in his trailer. Report said death was due to infirmities of old age, following an attack of pneumonia. He was a handy-man and painter after his father died. He was married 6-19-1920 to Ada Petersen, b. 8-10-1889 in Peninsula, Ohio. She was a High School teacher of English in Northfield High School when Lawrence met her. They were separated as she couldn't live in his home with his mother. She came to our house on Rt.82 and rented two rooms for light housekeeping. They were reunited and she went back to the Bliss home to live. It was while here they had one child. Later separated and she went home to live with her father in Peninsula. He and her sisters helped to raise her son.

    1. Lawrence Carroll Bliss, b. 11-29-1929, Cleveland, Ohio. He graduated from Kent State University and has the title of Dr. (Professor of Botany) in 1951. Lives in Urbana, Illinois. Married in 1952 to Gweneth Ruth Jones, born in Lakewood, Ohio. They have two children. 1. Dwight Ivor 2. Karen Lynn. Gweneth enjoys music and sewing. It was thru them that I was able to secure these pictures. I forgot to say that Ada Petersen Bliss died of cancer of the spine and is buried in Peninsula. I always considered her a good fried of mine, altho I didn't approve of her marriage; didn't think it would be a happy one; she left a son who seems to be doing very well.

2. Florence Brower, b. 1865, Little York, Ohio, died 1890, Macedonia; cause of death was child birth. Married George T. Bishop; he became quite a wealthy man in the railroad business; a true benefactor of both Northfield and Macedonia. He owned the estate in Macedonia known as "North Woods"; he sold this property and bought the John McConnell farm in Northfield where the Fenton's now live; did quite some remodeling and the Fenton's have continued to remodel it. Florence and George Bishop had one child; 1. Gladys Marie, who died in 4-8-1891; name and date engraved on Bishop tombstone in N-M cemetery.

3. Jennie June Brower, re. Macedonia and later in Summit County Home at Monroe Falls, near Akron, Ohio. She drove her own little electric coupe until her family decided she was too old, and it was neither safe for her or anyone else for her to continue to drive. She was born 6-30-1869 in Little York and died April, 1963, at age (almost) 94 years. She was an ardent worker in the M.E. Church and the N-M Cemetery Association, as well as being a member of both. Ruth Colton, as part of her duties in the church often took flowers from the altar to Jennie on Sunday afternoons. She said sometimes she would be in a nice room, sitting in front of a large window in a rocking chair; maybe the next time she would be in a large ward with the beds very close together. It was all a mystery to Ruth. I imagine she was paying her way there, but am not sure.

   She married Harmon F. Chamberlin, who was a farmer for many years on the Macedonia-Hudson Road. Later he was appointed Superintendent of the County Home, and they lived there. They often held dances for some of the patients to which many outsiders would go. He died of a blood clot and is buried in the N-M cemetery, where I'm sure Jennie is buried, too.

She surely never expected to spend her last days in the County Home when she and her husband lived there when he was Superintendent. How little we know what life holds for us! But some of the people were there as employees and recognized her. To Jennie Brower and Harmon Chamberlin were born two children; 1. Marie Lenore 2. Reginald

1. Marie Lenore Chamberlin (1893-1959); after her husband's death she sold real estate, and often ate at the Bee Hive. Alto found her to be much more friendly then than she was as a young woman or girl. Life mellows some of us. When told she had cancer, she said she would work as long as she was able, then go to the hospital, which she did. She married Elwood Waters; they farmed the old Jim Senter's farm next to new Rt. 8. Elwood was a farmer and a dairyman; there is a large housing development on this farm now; also a bowling alley on one corner. Three children born to Elwood Waters and Marie Chamberlin; 1.Harmon William 2.Mary Jane 3. Ray Elwood
    1. Harmon William Waters, b. 3-6-1919, Macedonia; I believe (altho I'm not sure) that he is the boy who was in the Air Force in W.W.II who was lost in his plane; he was never heard from, only a report from the Government.
    2. Mary Jane Waters, res. Macedonia, in the housing development on her father's old farm. Born 1920, Macedonia; she was employed as a school secretary in the High School Building when I was in the Elementary school in Macedonia in the same capacity. She married Robert Frederick Quink. I think (but I am not sure) he is a pharmacist; no children; but when I saw them on Decoration Day, 1962, they had a little girl with them, on whom adoption papers were to be completed the following week. I've had little cooperation with any of this family, so do not have much to write. Mary Jane had a 4 months baby of their own in her arms on Decoration Day 5-30-64 in N-M Cemetery.
    3. Ray Elwood Waters, b. 1921, Macedonia; farmer with his father dairyman, also; delivering milk to homes; factory worker. They live in the house on Summer Avenue that Frank and I, with our two children owned for 1½ years and lived in. I never liked living there. They have two children, boys, not very cooperative, either.
2. Reginald Chamberlin, brother of Marie and son of Jennie and Harmon Chamberlin; no further information.

3. Henry Brower, married (2) Eleanor Whittier, b. 1865; died 1940 of the natural causes of old age; buried in N-M cemetery. She (Eleanor) was born in Orwell, Ohio, and a lineal descendant of John Greenleaf Whittier, the famous American poet. One child born to Henry Brower and Eleanor Whittier; 1. Jean Rose.

This is where the second double relationship exists between the Holbrook and Leach families. One is thru the Frank Cross family.

FIFTH ----the Brewer Genealogy

Eleanor Whittier Brower married (2) Howard (Kid) Humphrey, after the death of her husband, Henry Brower. In the first instance Henry was much older than Eleanor; in the second marriage, she was much older than Kid. This really is not part of the Brower history, but "Aunt Ella" was always a part of the Brower family, and Kid had lived at our house so much he seemedto be part of the family, also. He was a tall, thin man with red hair, almost bald, but a heart as large as all outdoors. I never saw a happier couple. The enjoyed life and just being together. Kid had never had a real home until he married Aunt Ella. His mother died when he was quite young. He lived with his sister, Florence (Mrs. Ed Way) in Brandywine; then when he went out into the world on his own, he made his home anywhere he hung his hat. He lived with us much of the time for many years, as he was Dad's right-hand man on the threshing outfit; in charge of the crew when Dad could not be with them. He loved that old coal engine; kept it shining and clean, and always in working order. If he had any pennies in his pocket, "swish" out they went into the road or into the field. He had absolutely no use for a penny. Couldn't seem to realize that pennies made dollars. He was generous to a fault and careless with his money until he married and Aunt Ella took care of it. Kid appreciated his own home. I'm not sure where Kid is buried but I know it isn't in the N-M cemetery.

It always seemed to me that Alta and Lota never had as many mishaps as I did when we were youngsters. Lota was never very well and did not get out doors as much as Alta and I did. She had so much ear ache; they tried all the old-fashioned remedies that could be thought of; one was Dad blew cigar smoke into her ear; I don't know that it did any good; she was always carrying a hot water bottle around, holding it up to her ear. Poor girl!

If Alta happened to step onto a little dead chicken in the yard, you could hear her scream a mile. She was deathly afraid of a dead one.

I was hanging up clothes in the back yard for Mother one day, when a robin foew over; "splash" -- I had to immediately wash my hair. Nother thought that easier than her washing a sheet, but I was madder than an old wet hen.

Another time Dad was raising two young calves -- holsteins; he tied them out around the yard to eat grass; he asked me to change them from one tree to another. I got the heifer calf moved and tied, but that darn bull calf was larger and stronger; he took me across the yard at a gallop, and all I could do, was to wrap the rope around a tree quickly and stop him. Mother came out to help me get him tied.

I started to the milk factory one very cold morning with Dad. By the time we reached the Otto farm (just across new Rt. 8) I was too cold to go any further, so I went in to stay until Dad got back. The two boys with whom I went to school with were out in the barn playing. Floyd Morris who had worked for Dad at different times was working there. We were up in the hay mow playing. I was pretty much a tom boy. Just as they yelled "Don't go there" I had already started to slide down the hay chute, not knowing it was there. I landed on the floor right in front of a big red cow. There were several calves tied in between the two rows of cows (they were Stanchioned face to face). I was so scared I wouldn't move until Floyd came and got me. I went into the house and stayed there until Dad came.

Subject: more Hannah

Samuel Ryland's father James did his last land transaction in Bedford Co. in April, 1818. I believe he died sometime between that date and mid-1919. Samuel, as the oldest son, would surely have stayed until his father's demise. And since Samuel's son James was born in March, 1820, it is highly unlikely that a very pregnant Hannah would have traveled over an icy trail in the middle of winter. So I'm guessing that Hannah and Samuel went to Belmont Co. in the late summer/early fall of 1819. People followed the known routes of the time, and Zane's Trace ran directly from Bedford through Belmont. The fact that Hannah made a beeline to Wayne Co. shortly after Samuel died tells me that she had NO Myers kin in Belmont Co. But people did not strike out for nowhere, so there must have been relatives of Samuel's mother (Harvey) in Belmont. Indeed, there were a number of Harveys there in 1819, but I have not yet made a connection. Meanwhile, the rest of the Rylands were still back in Bedford Co. And since I have an 1821 Bedford land record for Samuel's brother James Anderson, I don't believe the mother (Rebecca, whose stone we just replaced) and Samuel's siblings moved to Montgomery Co. until 1822. This makes it virtually impossible that James and Matilda ever met their grandmother Ryland. And it makes it a certainty that the grandmother who read to James from the Bible was grandmother Myers. Did she read in German, or English?

Among the persons in this picture are Emma Appleton Darrow, Ella Peck, Lorenzo Brower, Earl Peck, Alta Peck. The only one identified is Emma who is in the dark dress.

James Murray studied medicine, and resided for a time in Cincinnati, where he died. John studied surveying, and afterwards became treasures of Richland county for two teams, and then removed west, where he died. Of his numerous family, all have deceased, except three married daughters, who do not reside in the county.

BENJAMIN MYERS, was born in Perry township, Dec. 21, 1841, and is the son of Jacob and Mary Myers, natives of Pennsylvania. His father was born in Center county, of that State, May 25, 1788, and died in Ashland county, Ohio, Aug. 4, 1857. His mother was born in the same county as his father, and died in Perry township, Ashland county, Sept. 12, 1878. His brothers are Jonathan, George, Jacob and Daniel, all residents of Perrry township, except Jacob, who resides in Kansas; his sisters are Margaret, Eliza, Mary, and Catharine, all living in this county, except Mary, who is deceased. Benjamin Myers resided with his father in Perry township until 1860, doing farm work in the summer time and attending district school in the wintertime. In 1861-62 he attended the Vermillion institute at Hayesville, but, in 1862, offered his services in defence of his country, enlisting in company F, One Hundred and Twentieth Ohio volunteer infantry. In July, 1865, he returned home from the war and resumed his studies at the institute. In 1866 he began the study of medicine at Wooster, Ohio, in the office of Drs. Robinson & Weaver. In 1867 he attended upon a course of medical instruction in the Jefferson Medical college of Philadelphia graduating from that college in 1869. In June of the same year he formed a partnership with Dr. J. P. Cowan, and began the practice of medicine at Ashland, Ohio. Nov. 29, 1879, he was united in marriage with Samantha Cowan, his partner's daughter. His children are: Rena M., born Nov. 19, 1871, and Emma C. born Sept. 14, 1873. Mrs. Myers died Nov. 21, 1878. In 1873 Mr. Myers died Nov. 21, 1878. In 1873 Mr. Myers was elected to the Ohio legislature, and re-elected in 1875, serving all four years.

FRANK E. MYERS, son of George and Elizabeth Myers, was born Mar. 16, 1848. His father was a native of Pennsylvania, whence he came with his parents when a youth, and settled on the homestead in Perry township, and his mother was born in Wayne county, Ohio. There they were married, and raised a family of nine children: Frank E., Celena, P. A., Mary A., Elizabeth S., Alvah N., George D., Minnie V., and Effie. Frank E. Myers, the subject of this sketch, lived at home working on the farm, and attending school during the winter months, until he arrived at maturity, when he left home and entered the dry goods store of M. B. Parmely, at Ashland, with whom he remained about a year, when he returned to the farm. He again came to Ashland and worked for the Ashland Machine company, where he continued four years, until 1875, when eh opened a local agency for agricultural implements, and in 1879 associated with himself his brother, P. A. Myers, who hand until then been employed by him. In 1878 the increasing demand of his business required him to move to the large building now occupied by himself and his brother. During all the time since 1875, he has been general traveling agent for Bucher, Gibbs & Co., of Canton, Ohio, for Ohio and the eastern States. Jan. 18, 1872, he married Alvesta, daughter of S. Hohenshil, of Rowsburgh. They have had five children: Mamie E., George J., Charley, John C., and Laura E.

H. K. MYERS was born in Carroll county, Maryland Dec 21, 1834. His father, John Myers, was a native of the same county, as was his mother, Hannah Myers, both of whom died in Ashland county, after raising a family of eight children, as follows: Ellen, David, Mary A., Israel, Sarah A., Lydia, Henry K. and Julia A. Henry K. Myers, the subject of this sketch, came to Ohio in the fall of 1839, with his parents and their family, and settled in Orange township, Ashland county. He remained at his father's for some years, working a part of the time in the saw-mill owned by his father. While there he was married to Anna Shoemaker, of Chester township, Wayne county, Ohio, by whom he has had five children, one of whom, Allen Gilbert, died in infancy. The others are John W., Mary E., David N. and Bertha B. Mr. Myers remained in Orange township until 1865, when he moved to Ashland and engaged in the lumber business. In 1879 he went into the milling business with partners, the firm name being H. K. Myers & Co. The partners were Christian Cabel and J. T. Kagel. The partnership still continues, the lumber business being conducted under the firm name of Cabel, Myers & Co., the third partner being Jesse Cabel, son of Christian Cabel. Mr. Myers is also interested with J. J. Shoemaker in the grocery business in Ashland.

JACOB MYERS immigrated to Clearcreek Township, 22d April, 1828. His native State was Pennsylvania, Green County, where he was ordained as a clergyman of the Baptist church. He purchased and entered and land which forms the tract upon which he has since resided, on sections 3 and 4, Clearcreek Township. His family at this time consisted of his wife and daughter Charlotte (who subsequently married James Clark) his son Cephas, his daughter Ellen, (who married Daniel Taylor;) Minerva, (now the wife of James Dunlap;) and Julia Ann (now the wife of John Gribben.)

MICHAEL MYERS was born Jan. 24, 1814, in Germany, and came to America with him parents and settled in Lebanon county, Pennsylvania, in the fall of 1814. From there his parents removed to Dauphin county, where they lived about eight years, and then removed to Center county, where they resided until 1832, when they removed to Columbia county, where they remained about two years and then emigrated to Richland county, Ohio, in 1836, and settled near Savannah, then known as Haneytown, in Clearcreek township.

Here he became acquainted with and married Miss Anne Mason, daughter of Martin Mason, and then resided about two years in Ruggles township, Huron county, after which he removed to Montgomery Township, and purchased his present homestead. The fruits of his marriage have been sixteen children, fourteen of whom still survive. His sons are Charles, Alonzo, John, Martin, Joseph, Frank, and George; the girls are Mary Anne, Lucia, Elizabeth, Irene, Ella, Ida and Maggie; all married but two boys and one girl.

Mr. Myers came in 1838, and has been a resident of Montgomery township forty-four years, and, all the time, he has been a practical farmer. He has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church ten years. He now attends all Protestant churches, indiscriminately. Mr. Myers owns a good farm, which is in an excellent state of cultivation, and yields an abundance to reward him for his toil. He has raised an interesting family who have been raised to habits of industry and economy, and are respected as useful and exemplary citizens.

The Jacksons

I was told lived in some Southern State, but left with some of their slaves, when the war broke out. Part of the family eventually settled in Grand Cayman B.W.I.

There our grandfather was born. Willam Atkin Jackson, as a young man became an expert Carpenter. He also was a seaman.

He married Benjamina Yates They had seven children.

Icey Mozella	1888-1970
Sarah Miriam	1889-1977
Spurgeon Ethan Charles	1892-1912
William Modrill	1894-1984
Geraldine Juanita	1897-1990
Alida Rosabel	1901-1939
Ira David	1906-1923

I have no record of the Jacksons prior to atkins generation.

Notes on Jacksonville
ISLE OF PINES

Jacksonvilles population was initially comprised of Jackson's, Yates, Heyde's, Tatums and Swabys The Rivess and Powery's soon added to the growth. Eventually these families grew, and the growth of Caleta Grande, another little Village 2 miles away, created a fair sized community.

There was an old house half way between, where Church services were held, and people from both villages always united.

after the 1926 Hurricane most people left there because the place was destroyed. The forests of great hardwood trees were all blown down.

Then a terrible fire consumed all timber, ending the hardwood export business.

Grandfather Athin Jackson had a good business of Bees and Honey. He had acquired and introduced some very fine plants and trees which gave the bees some of the best honey in the world.

He had a ready market for all he could produce, and was always busy.

The turtle shell which he salvaged from captured turtles was another source of income. His turtle nets were set in the ocean about a ½ mile from the coast, Being visible from their home, they were always aware when turtles became entangled and someone would row a canoe to remove the turtles, which would then be butchered and the meat shared with any who wanted it

Thomas John Yates a native of Manchester England, migrated to Jamaica in the early 1800's. at a later date to Grand Cayman. He married Elizabeth Mary Rivers. They had 3 sons. 1st. Thomas went to Bonaca where some of his descendants still live. 2nd John went to Saint andrews, (Now known as (San Andres) Some of his descendants still live among other Islands in the area, such as Providencia, Corn Island, etc.

Joseph David first married a miss Graham of Jamaica and by her had 4 children. He later married Sarah Parchment. Their descendants still live in West Bay Grand Cayman, and just about all over the hemisphere.

I was once told, that the Jacksons had been living in some southern part of what is the U.S. and were slave owners

TONIGHT

There's a longing to express
In words or by deed
The frustration repressed
Through the long years lived.

Dreams of heroism long faded,
Are now just memories;
Memories now misty and jaded,
Obscured in fretful unease.

As vainly I fight in despair,
My deep frustrations and pain,
An all engulfing fear
Returns to torment me again.

Long have I lived;
Long have I sought
Fulfillment of dreams
Which have come naught.

Dreams of achievements,
Wealth and respect;
Bestowing help and endowments
To those victims of neglect.

So in deference to time,
I relinquish my youth;
The youth that was mine,
Now faces pure truth.

The time has arrived
For me to decide
To be forgotten forever,
Or be remembered with pride.

Subject: Dear Helen, Re: Genealogy update

Greetings Helen;
I got your note on the Biographies and I agree with you. They make the rough data more readable and understandable, so I'll work on that, OK?

Here are some corrections and updates that ought to help with what you sent me.

First of all, please allow me to correct some things:

My Mom's maiden name was Amparo Rodriguez Padilla, correct spelling but wrong order in your form

Other data:

Kathleen Annette Anderson was born November 3rd, 1949
She and I married August 3rd, 1968
We divorced in August 1996 after a five year separation.

Jackie Lynn Yates (correction), born April 25th, 1969

Alvey Adee Yates III, born May 19, 1970

Darlene Renee Yates, born August 21, 1971 (correction)

Allison Makenzie Yates, b. August 28, 19'79 correction

Jennifer Anne Yates, b. October 4th, 1980 (correction)

Wife, Susana Dilupi Gutierrez Ballester, b. April 8th, 1972
We married November 27, 1996
Daughter: Andrea del Pilar Ramirez, b. March 24th, 1992 (correction

Christy Ann Yates, b. Dec 7, 1997 (correction)

I'm thinking about that Bio, OK?
God Bless.
Alvey Jr.

Subject: Re: Good Morning!

Good morning, dear Helen.

I am sorry if I neglected you yesterday. I had a full day after an insomnic night. I made it through all the needed tasks very successfully and then, while doing groceries, it hit me! I just had enough time to put the groceries away when I got home, and went to bed for a long-needed nap. Must have slept for over an hour. I usually just rest by laying across the bed for 15 minutes. This one time, I actually laid down like I was going to sleep (at night) and just died! I was soooooooooooooooo tired!

The family room came out looking beautifully! One of our old recliners ruined that part of the wood flooring, so we'll need to refinish it for the third time before we move from here, but for now, we bought a beautiful, graphic area carpet that matches with the new furniture and covers the flawed spot. The rest of the floor is fine; it's just that one spot. The new furniture all reclines, but in place.

My day today will take its toll on my hands as I want to scrub and prepare the old furniture and pack stuff to be donated for tomorrow's pickup. At 1:30 p.m. tomorrow, I have a doctor's appointment to see about a bubble that swells up on the top side of my right hand (before the wrist area). Don't know what it is and it seldom hurts, but, should still be seen. I think I'm just getting old.

AH! Yesterday I was able to figure out that you remind me very much of a pen pal I had in the '60s. Our pastor linked me to a lady in Nebraska that wanted a pen pal and he thought this would be a good way for me to learn English. Mrs. Garlick also linked me to a young friend of hers, Beth, who I am sure was a special needs student, and we all corresponded for years until shortly after I got married. I then lost track, and I believe I was able to confirm with their local post office that Mrs. Garlick had passed on. She drew a beautiful ink and watercolor picture of seagulls for me. That may be why I like seagulls so much that I drove our friends crazy when we all camped together in Padre Island years ago. I fed them, so hundreds of them would come over by 5 a.m., and lined up like squadrons, calling and waiting for me. It was truly a memory to behold!

Our friends had gone there on vacation for many, many years and always enjoyed the peace and quiet of camping by the ocean. Until we joined them one year; it was not peaceful anymore. But we had so much fun! It was light until past 9 p.m. every night. Our pastor friend (Rev. Bowles, who baptized me as a baby when he was a missionary in Cuba), his Cuban wife (Fredesvinda), their singing chihuahua Tito, our family of four, and a family friend of theirs camped and had a wonderful time. We took turns cooking. Regretfully, the nearest bathroom facility was a mile away, and after getting stuck in the sand with our station wagon a couple of times, we held off a lot. After a three-week vacation, I returned to Fort Wayne with a very bad kidney infection.

We sold our Apache camper after that! We are definitely NOT outdoor people. During that trip, I believe we spent more time checking in into hotels and leaving the camper in the parking lot than we did actual camping. While in New Orleans, the trailer park got flooded while we were visiting the city. Spent about three hours drying stuff in the laundry that night. That park eventually had to be closed down. While we got to see a lot and enjoy many places during our three-week trek, we decided camping was too much work and not enough fun for us so we sold our lot (at Jellystone Park) and called it quits on that effort.

I'll see if I get any response from Charlie. He forwards jokes and stuff but never responds to anything; my stuff to him mostly bounces from his system. I apologize for the family's lack of interest in gathering the information you seek. Please do not hold your breath waiting for their responses. However, if I fail to revisit any promises I've made on follow up, just remind me.
My brother, Alvey quickly responds to my inquiries that you present. The latest is as follows:

You lived in Havana but did many/any of the others stay on the Isle of Pines until immigration?
All I remember about that is that Barbara and Amable, and maybe aunt Lucille and Charlie, came later than us. Barbara would know best.

You mentioned you knew your Mom's family best, but did you have any interaction with your Dad's family? Joe and I traveled to the Isle several times.

Did you first meet Olga, Janet, etc. after you came here? Olga did stay with us for a little time in Habana, when in transit to the USA. Uncle Herb and his family had been in the USA and we had not met him or them until we migrated.

What years did every one immigrate? That's a tough one, because everybody came at different times, probably beginning in 1950. We in Nov. 16, 1960, but I think Dad had been in Fl since June of that year, and by that time Uncle and Aunt Cruz (and by the way, nobody ever mentions Raulito anymore!) Aunt Ge and Tio Ferrera, Josephine; Aunt Bertha and family and of course Grampa and Grandma had already been there for years! I don't think they all came at the same time.

I may have mentioned to you that I have suggested to Olga that she includes her father's picture in her wall gallery. While she does not look like her mom, she looks just like her dad, and the younger generations look a lot like her. It would be a nice link. I am sure she will consider it in due time.

If you wish to pursue the Isle of Pines folks, may I suggest you contact Rev. Herman Glienke and/or his wife Dolores? He was the last Lutheran (LCMS) missionary in Isle of Pines, and he and his family went to the island just a few years ago. One of his daughters was detained for interrogation for hours, even though she was still a baby when she came to the USA!!!!! I really don't know anything much as we don't keep in touch. Their friendship was mostly with dad. I'll see if I can find a picture of Rev. Glienke and Rev. Bowles at dad's 90th birthday party and send it to you. We flew Rev. Bowles down to Miami from Texas for that occasion.

Enough for the day? I probably will be incomunicado for the most part, so I hope this keeps your brain cells actively thinking until we meet again!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! 😐 🙂

Luv and blessings,
M

Thanks. Both of these parents have birth dates - Robert Lorenzo Yates was born 13 Sep 1894 WB and Ursie Farrington was born 8 Dec 1898 WB, daughter of Thomas William Farrington JP and Elizabeth Melencia Parsons. I do not have death dates for either one nor do I have info on who Robert Lorenzo's parents were.

Miss Ursie's sister, Miss Aldith, died recently. I believe the only remaining sibling in this family group is Mr. Leonard Ebanks' father, Miss Pet (Petronella Farrington who turns 90 this year.

Cayman, B.W.I.
... 2 Robert Carl Ebanks b: May 16, 1912 in West Bay, Grand Cayman, B.W.I.
Also, Mark, the records have some confusion regarding the mother of one of Udell's sisters. Here's her family:

Descendants of Malachi Routledge Yates

1 Malachi Routledge Yates
. +Florence Matilda Bodden
... 2 Almera Udell Yates b: Dec 21, 1899 in West Bay, Grand Cayman, B.W.I.
.... +William Elmos Ebanks b: Oct 20, 1899 in West Bay, Grand Cayman, B.W.I. Father: Thomas Temple Ebanks Mother: Martha Elizabeth Bodden
... 2 Dwendeline Marrie Yates b: Apr 21, 1902 in West Bay, Grand Cayman, B.W.I.
... 2 Unnamed Boy Twin Yates b: Jan 17, 1905 in West Bay, Grand Cayman, B.W.I.
... 2 Florence Ione Yates b: Jan 17, 1905 in West Bay, Grand Cayman, B.W.I.
... 2 James Atwood Yates b: Jul 30, 1906 in West Bay, Grand Cayman, B.W.I.
... 2 Claudine Amelia Yates b: Aug 17, 1909 in West Bay, Grand Cayman, B.W.I.
The mother of this last child is listed as Claudine Amelia Bodden. However the only person with this name had died a few months prior to this birth.
Perhaps this child was named in her honor and a mistake was made in recording the mother?

Rupert

In 1912 he was at home and was riding a pony. There was a stone wall at the end of the yard and the horse bolted onto the wall. Spurgeon fell on stones and had severe chest bruises. They sent him on the boat and train to Havanna for treatment but he died at the railroad station.
